WYOMING LEGISLATURE'S PRESIDING OFFICERS MOURN THE PASSING OF FORMER U.S. SENATOR MIKE ENZI

CHEYENNE – Senate President Dan Dockstader and Speaker of the House Eric Barlow join Wyomingites in mourning the loss of former United States Senator Mike Enzi, who passed away on Monday.

Enzi was elected to the U.S. Senate in 1997 and served until his retirement in 2020. He previously served in the Wyoming State Legislature from 1987 to 1991 in the House of Representatives, and from 1992 to 1996 in the Wyoming Senate. Prior to his service in the Legislature, Enzi served as mayor of Gillette from 1975 to 1982.

President Dockstader and Speaker Barlow issued the following statement:

"On behalf of the Wyoming Legislature, President of the Senate Dan Dockstader and Speaker of the House Eric Barlow extend our deepest sympathies and prayers to Diana and the entire Enzi family for the loss of Mike. He was a member of our family too, the Wyoming Legislature. He was both a gentleman and a gentle man. He was a genuine witness to his faith, lived his ideals with fidelity and sought knowledge and understanding. He set a high bar in his service to the Wyoming he loved.

We celebrate your life, Mike, and hold your family up in prayer." – END –
